Payroll Management System Project

Payroll Management System Project is a full-featured Graphical User Interface (GUI) with all the basic functionalities of a typical Payroll System used the company. With this payroll management system in Java Netbeans IDE intended to help the company manage their employee payroll efficiently.

The employee payroll management system is a java project developed using Eclipse with backend MYSQL as the database. In this project, the user will find the login module appearing on the home page. The user has to enter the username and password in order to get logged into the system as the system administrator.

When the user gets logged in the system he can then do the following features:

1. Add Update Delete Search
2. Employees from the System
3. Add Update Delete
4. Salary details
5. Add Update Delete
6. Leave details
7. Generate and Print Pay Slips
8. Database file is also included
9. GUI is done using Java Swing Framework

Technology Used :

1. Front end : React.
2. Database :Mysql Database
3. Programming: SpringBoot with Layered Architecture.
4. IDE Used : Eclipse/STS